OH MY, OH MY written by Helen Lewis

Sunday at 6 we'll be sitting down to Sunday supper
Sunday at 8 when the dishes are all done
Gather together in the living room
Gather together as the cases are undone

If you could play then you had to play a little bit
And if you could sing, then you had to sing a song
If you could dance, then you step around the living room
And if you could do none, then you had to clap along

(Chorus)

Oh My, Oh My
Grandma would say every time we got the banjo out
Oh My, Oh My
Come on now the music has begun
Oh My, Oh My
Kiss her on the cheek as she settles in her easy chair
Oh My Oh My
Come on now we're gonna have some fun

Break

Babies would sleep as their Mommas rocked them to the music
Children would play to the rhythm of the song
Everyone gathered in the living room
When we're together nothing can be wrong

(Chorus)
