TILL YOU COME BACK AGAIN TO ME
Written by BARB PERKINS

You are so far away, but my heart is there with you
In my mind you're as close as can be
And you with in my mind, I'll get through though I'll miss you
Til you come back again to me

(Chorus)

Though you're so far away, I am right where you are
In my dreams you are all that I see
I'll keep sending my love, no matter how far
Til you come back again to me

I will never lose faith that some day you're returning
And you know I'm as true as can be
Through the dark lonely days and the nights, I'll be yearning
Til you come back again to me

(Chorus)

I'll be waiting for you, and my love with grow stronger
For my love is as deep as can be
Though the days seem so dark, and the nights become longer
Til you come back again to me.
